The dramatic setting of A Room of One's Own is that Woolf has been invited to lecture on the topic of Women and Fiction. She advances the thesis that "a woman must have money and a room of her own if she is to write fiction." Her essay is constructed as a partly-fictionalized narrative of the thinking that led her to adopt this thesis.

A Room of One's Own is of course canonical and hardly needs another recommendation. The almost flippant tone with which Woolf skewers male artistic superiority with arguments while simultaneously refuting the same idea with a style itself ingenious etches in one's soul the plight of women in the early twentieth century.
