Exodus Sermon series. The audio for the entire series is here. )Israel was indeed a nation born of promises. It was an entire nation that traced its lineage back to one man, Abraham, a man who had received an outlandish set of promises from God. At the beginning of Exodus, though, it seems as though those promises were merely empty words.

3. Psalm 54 was written when David was hiding from King Saul.
4. Psalm 60 was written after David had been defeated in a military attack.. 5. And so on! When you see that about 40% of the Psalms were laments and if you consider the Book of Psalms to be the Israelite's song book for worship you may begin to wonder why we don't have more laments in our hymnals and worship choruses.

As followers of Christ, we aren't honest because society tells us to be honest. Our society isn't honest. And, worse, even rewards those who get away with dishonesty. It is evident in our government, our politicians, our judicial system, our businesses, our schools. The pervasive thought is if you can get away with it, more power to you.

He saved his life because it was an honest cry for help. And there is not a man or woman in this house to-night but that shall be eternally saved if he or she will send the cry up to heaven, "Lord, help me. Lord, remember me. Lord, save me, or I perish." "It shall come to pass that whosoever calleth on the name of the Lord shall be saved."
