The text is an edit from my book En abime. Listening, Reading, Writing. An audio recording of the reading will be uploaded next month. 'Something Missing': notes on Writing Sound as Landscape and mise-en-abime. I think of the space of Writing Sound as I read a short text by Robert Walser, published in 1902 and entitled Music. At some point he says, 'There's something missing when I don't hear music, and when I do, then there's really something missing.'
