I found Fossil's Philippe Starck collection of digital watches to be entirely consistent with my impression of the rest of Starck's work: unique, minimal, functional, weird, and fun. All the watches in the collection are relatively simple, affordable, and no doubt serve as both time and conversation pieces.

This is the first Starck + Fossil watch I bought. That was more than two years ago and one battery change. In terms of balance between aesthetics and function is the best of that line, which doesn't mean that's perfect. After a little struggling with the manual I managed to figure out how to set it.
