Gazing at the Stars by Eva Slonim | Black Inc.

Her standout memory: "My last summer at camp, my friend and I snuck away from the performance of a show we'd already seen, and climbed out on the roof of our cabin to look up at the star-filled sky and talk. I did so many fun, amazing things there — attended intensive dance workshops, participated in so many different shows, made friends with everyone — but those few moments looking up at the sky with a friend I loved so much has stuck with me like nothing else."
