Terri Osburn's Ardent Springs series has covered some difficult subjects in a light contemporary format; however she goes just a little bit darker in the latest release, Her Hopes and Dreams. Spousal abuse, PTSD and even the challenges of single-parenting push the storyline into some less romantic places; but even so

With plans to further her career in Hong Kong, she disclosed her hopes and dreams of one day buying a home in the city. Despite this being Lisa's first job after the pageant, she was very natural on camera even though she claimed to be nervous. The filming took over 10 hours to complete, but Lisa conquered the challenge very professionally.
