A tale of two nations struggling around the Encircled Sea. Kings of Ruin is the first book in a new series Kingdoms of Sand by one of my favorite authors, Daniel Arensen. Another amazing cast of characters from the mind of the master storyteller live, love, scheme and fight, given that touch of realism that brings life to the actors.

Kings of Ruin (Kingdoms of Sand, #1) by Daniel Arenson
"Dynastic politics, magic, and violence--Daniel Arenson's new epic fantasy series, beginning with Kings of Ruin, has them all. Set in an alternate version of ancient Rome and Judea, the series recalls Game of Thrones with its political and sexual intrigues, brutality, and vivid characters.

King of Ruin was a pretty cool and very different fae romance. One that blends fantasy and sci-fi together in a very unique way that totally works. Since this is the first book in a series, most of the book was spent acquainting the reader with the world building while the plot and romance was pretty slow to pick up.
