Literature Of The Caribbean Literature

Caribbean literature, literary works of the Caribbean area written in Spanish, French, or English. The literature of the Caribbean has no indigenous tradition. The pre-Columbian American Indians left few rock carvings or inscriptions (petroglyphs), and their oral traditions did not survive 16th-century Spanish colonization.

Caribbean Literature (491 books) - Goodreads

Caribbean literature is written in Spanish, French or English. A central theme in Caribbean literature is the process of Creolization, a term describing a process of mixing old traditional cultures with new modern elements of an inherited culture. This word developed in the Caribbean countries, where, as a result of colonization, people from African, European and Caribbean cultures mixed together, eventually leading to the formation of new identities.
