I gave this style guide five stars because its intelligent and comprehensive understanding of what "style" means. It is not a how-to, so you will not be told how to wear something, or what is currently in "fashion." I would not buy it as a straightforward manual of what to wear when traveling in Britain.

LUELLA has added to her stylish repertoire by writing a book - Luella's Guide to English Fashion. "My aim is simply to dig up the roots of and, more importantly, show my unerring appreciation and devotion to those contrived subtleties and that blatant contrariness that makes British women so staggeringly adept in the art of expression through style," says Luella in her introduction.
