Off Magazine Street Ronald Everett

The first novel published by Alabama author Ronald Everett Capps, OFF MAGAZINE STREET is the charming story of two lecherous, drunken, and inarguably failed native sons who take to the French Quarter with a morbidly obese former mental patient who freely dispenses sexual favors between bags of Oreos and potato chips.

Off Magazine Street by Ronald Everett Capps

Off Magazine Street is dark, dirty, and extremely uncomfortable at times, with some shamelessly unlikeable characters. Somehow, though, Capps comes through in their humanity and they eventually develop into relatable people with compelling stories of their own. There is an underlying softness to the tone, a sense of hope, maybe, but a ...
