We recall the big problem and how the characters resolved the problem. This helps first graders come up with the central message. First students discuss the problem to engage all learners and get them thinking. Then a volunteer shares their ideas. The class engages in discussion and we determine if the idea is valid by using evidence from the text.

Today I'm sharing a fun problem solving activity for first and second grade. My incoming second grader loved it! In my ebook, Top 10 Secrets to Great Teaching, I wrote about the importance of making math more than computation. To help our children understand math concepts, they need more than worksheets and a list of facts to solve.
