In Skinheads 1979-1984 Derek tells the story of how this five year project came into being. The skinheads had evolved from the so-called "hard mods" of the 1960s and, unlike the easier-going early skinheads, grew into a more right wing and bigoted version.

Skinheads 1979-1984 (Book Review) : StevenClark.com.au

Skinheads of London were captured on camera by Derek Ridgers. Between 1979 and 1984, Rigers recorded a youth culture that to many was all about the music (Trojan records and Jamaican rude boys) to some was about the far right and violence. The neo-Nazis robbed Skinheads of their cool, draping them in menace and racism.
